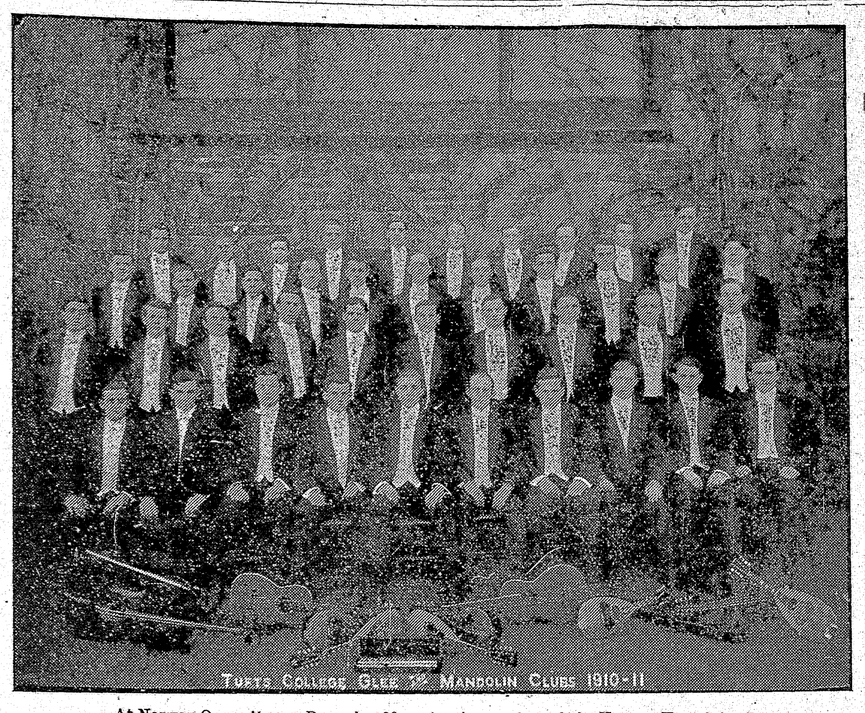
NUMBER 51. DECEMBER 23, 1910, NORWAY, MAINE. VOLUME XLI.



At Norway Opera House, December 29, under the auspices of the Norway High School.

Improvement of the Lake.

The Norway Fish and Game Association, which was reorganized last spring with A. J. Stearns, president, J. C. Shepard, vice president, I. W. Waite, secretary and treasurer, has been at work during the summer and has accomplished considerable toward bettering the fishing conditions of Lake Pennesseewasseee.

Through the efforts of the association screens have been purchased and placed at the dam, thus protecting the fish. The money expended in this improvement of the lake was raised by subscription from the people who visit the lake during the summer and from the people of the village interested in lake fishing.

It is the object of the association to better the fishing conditions, to keep the lake well stocked with fish, to protect the fish as directed by law, and to make Lake Pennesseewassee one of the best fishing grounds in this section of the county.

Early in the spring 10 cans of small fry, red spots, from the Auburn Hatchery were put into the lake; the first of November 8 cans of fingerlings were added and on the 15th of December 10 cans of salmon from the Auburn Hatchery were put in, and more will be added from time to time.

The association are doing all they possibly could along this line and appreciate the way in which the public have helped them financially.

A Mysterious Visitor.

One year ago last July, Oscar Bennett put a large quanity of hay onto the scaffold in his barn the same as any man would, although not needing it, it had remained in that place until the present time. A few days ago he heard a scratching apparantly on the scaffold floor under the hay, some ten feet from either end of the mow. He at first payed no attention but as the scratching continued several days he decided to find out what was there.

Taking a saw and locating the place where the scratching seemed to be, he sawed a board from the floor and much to his surprise and amazement out fell a hen. The hen was fed and cared for and is now laying. What puzzels Mr. Bennett is where the hen came from, but he fails to get any light on the subject.

Ursula McAllister is visiting her sister, Mrs. Farrington, at Lovell for a few weeks.

The Wild Cat club was in attendance and a very pleasant evening enjoyed with music and readings appropriate to the occasion. A very fine collation was served by the hostess. Dr. and Mrs. Barker were the recipients of a dozen solid silver teaspoons and a solid silver tablespoon.

Ross Upton, while loading sawdust at the Willis mill in Greenwood, Monday, became nearly buried under it, caused by a caving in of the sawdust. He tried to attract attention but the noise from the mill was too great, happily some one passed in the road and noticed him. He was taken out and it was found one leg was crushed and the hip injured. He has a trained nurse and it is thought he has not received any internal injuries.

Basket Ball Game.

The first game of basket ball in town this season was played at the Opera House Thursday evening, between two local teams, the Norway Regulars and the Yannigans, and was a very interesting game. There was a very good attendance and the balcony was well filled with interested and enthusiastic spectators who rooted well for their respective sides and encouraged the players at the critical points.

The Regulars were the winners and won with a score of 39 to 8. The line-up was as follows:—

The Arrival of Kitty.

"The Arrival of Kitty" was presented at the Opera House Tuesday evening, by the Doherty-Collins and Company, and the attendance was small. The play was an amusing farcial comedy and caused no little amount of amusement. The tangled situations, the numerousness of the "Kittys in red," and the general misunderstandings between parties made the play exceptionally interesting to the spectators. The female impersonator, Hal Johnson, did some fine acting in the person of Kitty, and at last the mysterious Kitty appeared and the mysteries were cleared away.

Nature Tells You.

As Many a Norway Reader Knows too Well.

When the kidneys are sick,
Nature tells you all about it.
The urine is nature's calendar.
Infrequent or too frequent action;
Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.
Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.
Norway people testify to this.

Mrs. Solon Moore, Tucker St., Norway, Me., says: "About five years ago I was troubled by kidney complaint. My whole body seemed to be affected and during these spells the secretions from my kidneys were unnatural. I used many remedies, but received no benefit. I at last procured Doan's Kidney Pills from Stone's Drug Store and they proved to be an excellent remedy. I am pleased to give this preparation my highest endorsement." 50-51

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. 48-52

NORTH WATERFORD.

Golden Wedding.

On the evening of Nov. 29, the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Parris Paige was the scene of a pleasant gathering of friends and relatives to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. It was a very stormy evening and many who would otherwise have been there were prevented from coming, but there were about thirty present and the evening was pleasantly spent in social chat. Refreshments of sandwiches, cakes and coffee were served by the daughters and granddaughters.

Mrs. Annie Hazelton read a story clipped from a Western paper, and sent by a brother of Mr. Paige.

Mrs. Myra M. Patrick read an original poem. And a poem written by Mrs. Ellen Davenport was read by Mrs. Lizzie Jewett.

Following is a list of the presents:—
Silver service—presented by Mrs. Lizzie Jewett, Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Marston, Dustin McAllister, Annias McAllister, George Farnum, Henry Elliott.
Silver butter dish—Waterford grange.
Silver cake basket—G. M. Knight W. R. C.
1 dozen teaspoons—Sewell Abbott and wife.
½ dozen teaspoons—Rilla Marston.
Sugar shell and butter knife—Pearl Hatch.
Silver meat fork—Maud Smith.
Berry spoon—Bernice Littlefield.
Three tablespoons—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Elliott.
Three tablespoons—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kilgore.
Pair towels—Ella Charles.
Apron—Mrs. Millett.
1 dozen napkins—Annie Hazelton.
Agate cooker—Rilla Marston.
Vase—Mrs. Charles Grover.
Silver berry spoon—C. W. Paige of Kansan.
Sugar shell—James Paige of St. Louis.
Jelly spoon—Ellen Davenport of Massachusetts.
Sugar shell—Albert Paige of Manhattan.
Berry dishes—Mr. and Mrs. David Lebroke.
Picture frame and doily—Mr. and Mrs. John McAllister.
Money—Fred Hazleton.
Money—David Lebroke.
Money—Mr. and Mrs. Will Abbott.

Though Mr. and Mrs. Paige are neither of them natives of Waterford, they have been almost life long residents of the town. Both are young for their years, and their friends hope they may live to celebrate their diamond wedding.

Mr. Paige is a veteran of the Civil war, a member of the 23d Maine Co. K.

Mrs. Paige's father, Daniel Lebroke, who lives with them, was present on this occasion, so with their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, five generations were represented.

We regret that we have no copy of Mrs. Davenport's poem.

Following is Mrs. Patrick's poem:—

To Mr. and Mrs. Parris Paige, Nov. 29, 1910.

Can it be 'tis half a hundred years
Since the day these two were wed?
It seems sometimes but yesterday,
So swiftly the years have sped.

'Twas the the twenty-ninth of November
Just fifty years ago,
That young Parris said to Emily,
"To the Justice let us go."

And the maiden was not unwilling,
So quickly they hastened away,
And climbed Ray's hill to Squire Mosher's,
And were married that very day.

No mind had they for distant scenes,
Never afar did they roam,
But in the pleasant land of their fathers
They made for themselves a home.

In the pleasant cares of the home life
But a few short years had passed,
When over all the North-land
Was heard War's thunder blast.

Unheeding they heard its threatenings
'Till that fateful moment, when
The rebels fired on Sumpter,
And the President called for men.

Stout Parris marched at his country's call
With step of a soldier firm,
While Emily cared for the little one,
And prayed for his safe return.

O, there were long days of watching,
And sleepless nights of pain,
Till under victorious banners
The boys marched home again.

Then followed years less eventful,
Years filled with loving toil,
She the busy housewife and mother,
He the tiller of the soil.

Six children came to bless their home,
To increase its pleasures and care;
But more than half their number
Are waiting them over there.

Some in life's rosy morning,
And one in womanhood's prime,
They have entered the city celestial
Through the open portals of time.

Thus sorrow and joy are so mingled here,
We must greet you with smiles and with tears,
As we thank the Giver of all good gifts
For this union of fifty years.

And we ask that His richest blessings
May be with you now to the last;
And you be reunited in Heaven,
When earth's sorrows and pleasures are past.

There were three lovely floral pieces, white pinks from the ladies' circle, pink pinks from other friends and a pillow with "Father" inscribed upon it. The bearers were T. W. Benton, Monroe French, Frank Edgecomb and George Davis.

Mr. Newbegin leaves a daughter and many friends. In the space of thirteen months the daughter has seen her husband's parents, her mother, her husband and last of all her father pass to that bourne from which no traveller returns.

An exchange says: Walter Gordon of Sweden was arraigned before Trial Justice Seth Fife at Fryeburg recently charged with setting traps not properly marked. There was a second charge of setting traps on cultivated land without permission of the owner. He was adjudged guilty of the first charge, and was acquitted, for lack of proper evidence, on the second. Gordon's case is getting to be a family one. Game Warden Gray seized several traps, a few of them bearing Gordon's name upon them. Others, about twelve in number, were not marked at all. They were found in the vicinity of the Gordon traps and the contention of the state was that they belonged to Gordon. The defense was a denial of ownership. There was evidently evidence to the contrary, however, for the justice found him guilty and imposed a fine of $1 per trap for each trap adjudged to be his and ordered the traps forfeited. In addition to this Gordon was taxed with the costs, in all amounting to around $50.

A Christmas Message.

Have you thought how much of the highest value to man centers about Christmas? The advent of the Christ-child was the beginning of better things for this old world. That lowly babe of Bethlehem, born under conditions apparently the most unpromising, was to be the life and light of men. In Jesus Christ, men were to see the truth and love of God. His teaching, His life and character were to shape the thought, the conduct and history of mankind. He brought new power and new hope to the helpless and hopeless. He has been and always will be the highest ideal.

How fitting that we should keep Christmas Day; that our hearts and our homes should be filled with joy and peace; that we, like those faithful shepherds in the sacred story, should go forth and make known to others the glad message concerning the Christ.

NORTH WATERFORD.

Before Christmas Sale.

The "Before Christmas Sale" toward which the ladies of the parish have been bending their energies for several weeks, was held at the vestry on the after oon and evening of Saturday, Dec. 17 The room looked very Christmasy indeed with its elaborate decorations of green and red.

At the head of the room was a booth of green boughs, trimmed with red Xmas bells, where Mrs. C W. York and Mrs W. E. Rice sold aprons of all kind and colors. Harriett Knight disposed of home-made candies from a booth at the right, which was prettily festooned with red and green crepe paper.

On the other side of the room was a booth built of green boughs and decorated with many flags. Here Mrs. Carrie Moulton and Mrs. Martha Black sold fancy articles. One end of their table was devoted to a doll's party. The baby doll in a hammock swinging between two trees and watched over by a black mammy, was very cunning, while the two young lady dolls in the swinging chair were "to cute for anything." In one corner was a large tree full of yellow oranges, which contained many things not usually found in oranges.

Both oyster and pastry supper were served to a large company. The committee in charge of this part of the program being Mrs Louisa Knight, Mrs. Charlotte Butters and Mrs. Hattie Rice. Two quilts, one a rame quilt made by the circle, and a worsted quilt presented by the D. A. R., were sold at auction by A. C. Holt.

Sales were brisk and at an early hour in the evening, the over-loaded tables were bare, and the many boxes well filled.

The president of the circle, Mrs. Bertha Saunders, who labored so faithfully for the success of this fair, and all those who helped her, are to be congratulated on the result. The proceeds will be added to the fund for painting the church.

HIRAM.

Settled by Referees.

The case between Herbert Moulton and Isaac Lowell settled, Thursday, by referees. Mr. Usher, one of the referees, told us it was a bad affair. Herbert's and Isaac's pastures join and last spring each one turned out a year-old heifer. When it came fall Isaac went to get his and found it in Herbert's pasture. He drove it out and home, knowing it was his by a scar on one leg, which was caused by hitching it with a rope while a calf. After Isaac drove it home Herbert went after his and not finding it drove Isaac's down home and then went and notified Isaac about it and told him he had made a mistake and drove his home and he had better take it back and change them.

Isaac said no, he would not as he had his own. Herbert told him he had proof that he went into his pasture and took the heifer which was his and drove it home, and thought it would be best for him to drive it back as he should make trouble for him. However Isaac claimed he had his own and would not change.

They kept up quite a stew over it for a long time. At last they agreed to leave it to three disinterested men. Isaac gave Herbert the choice of two and he chose one. The referees were Marshall Spring and Melville Gould for Herbert. Isaac chose Elmer Usher, sheriff. They met and looked the two heifers over and heard the story on both sides and voted that the heifers should remain where they were.

PERFECTION IN HEALING

A Startling Reality.

By his wonderful method of treatment, The Electro Medical Specialist is curing long-standing cases, and the good news is being received with great joy by the sick and afflicted everywhere.

Electricity will tone up the whole system, give you pure blood and healthful activity, and will give you snap, vigor and vitality so essential to happiness.

This system of treatment far surpasses all the other methods combined, inasmuch as it reaches all chronic diseases. Many have been permanently restored to health and happiness when all hopes of relief were gone.

The Doctor is one of the most successful specialists of the day in all chronic and long-standing diseases of the Respiratory organs, Catarrh, Throat, Bronchitis, Consumption. Blood diseases—Scrofula, Tumors, diseases of the stomach and Digestive Tracts. Those fearful nervous diseases of men and women—no matter from what cause arising—Paralysis, Headache, Prostration, Lame Back, Sciatica and Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys and Bladder. Women—Women who are racked with pain in the pelvis, side, back or head, or suffering from nervousness and many troubles peculiar to their sex can find speedy relief and permanent cure without examination. Years of suffering and severe operations may be avoided by using this new treatment.

Young men who are beginning to suffer the mental and nervous retribution for early folly may avoid the consequences by seeking the aid of science. There are thousands with stooping form, aching back, hesitating speech, confused mind and bashful manners, who are unable to save themselves.

There are others who see their vital energies wasting away, unmindful of the fate that awaits them, perhaps in the near future. Such persons should have a confidential talk with the Doctor who can save them from weakening of the mind, nervous prostration, melancholia, insanity and impotence.

There are middle-aged men prematurely old, weak when they should be strong, who are guaranteed a perfect restoration to physical and nervous power.

Electricity is one of the greatest discoveries of the age. It makes blood, it kills the germs that cause disease, it vitalizes, invigorates and purifies. The blood is the life, the vitae magnetism is the life of the blood. Hence, weak men become strong, and paralyzed limbs and shriveled parts take on new life, and all nervous diseases yield to its power.

NOTICE—This is an opportunity to secure at a price with n your reach the services of a celebrated New York specialist, which you cannot receive in any other way, except by an expensive trip to New York. An interview will cost you nothing and may save years of suffering, perhaps your life. There are no failures in any case taken. A disease may be curable today and not curable tomorrow. Therefore do not delay.

If you cannot call in person, inclose stamp today for self examining outfit and learn just what to do to be cured if curable, free.

His marvelous power over disease heals th se hundreds of miles away the same as at the office.

Remember consultation is free Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week from 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 p. m. at Beals' Hotel, Norway.

NORWAY AND VICINITY

Chicken Pie Supper and Entertainment.

The chicken pie supper given at Concert Hall, Thursday evening in connection with th fair, was attended by a very large number. Fine chicken pies, squash, potatoes, cranberry jelly, and squash, pumpkin, apple and mince pies and coffee were served. Following the supper the three-act comedy entitled "The Elopement of Ellen," a bright, witty society play, was given by the following cast of characters:

Richard Ford, devoted young husband.....Stuart Goodwin
Molly Ford, his wife.....Alice Schauer
Robert Shepard, Molly's brother.....Carl Poynton
Max Ten Eyck, chum of Robert.....Alton Whitehead
Dorothy March, engaged to Max..Susie Walker
June Haverhill, Wellesley '06, who is doing some special investigation for economic courses during the summer..Leah Wetherbee
John Hume, rector of St. Agnes.....Walter Chandler

The actors each took their parts very well and much credit is due them for the success of the evening's entertainment. The drama is in three acts. The scene in the first act was the breakfast room at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ford, the morning after the elopement of Ellen, the maid, and the arrival of the new maid. The second act was in the Ford garden, which was a lovely spot among the trees and flowers, where the lovers met, quarreled, and made up again. The last act was in the same garden where an evening party was being held. The grounds were handsomely lighted by Japanese lanterns. Here all the misunderstandings between the parties were righted, and peace and harmony once more returned. The ladies' dresses were handsome party gowns, while the gentlemen wore evening suits. The drama was well liked by the large audience which was present, and it is understood that it may be repeated at some future date.

The orchestra of 5 pieces, which furnished music during the fair, played before supper and entertainment, and between the acts.

The orchestra consisted of Emil Hermes, cello; Marion Haskell, violin; Ethel Millett, violin; Ruth Cummings, piano; Arthur Morgan, cornet; and furnished some excellent music.

Those who had charge of making arrangements for the entertainment were Carrie Tucker, Mrs. Geo. Cummings, Mrs. B. F. Bradbury and Emil Hermes.

Christmas is Coming.

The advent of Christmas means a racking of our brains to find out what to give for presents and a racking of our wallets to pay for them, but never mind, it does us good to give to those we love, and it is a pleasure to those we don't love (is we can find any such ones) to have something given them.

There are are lots of good things to buy for gifts, stockings and mittens, gloves and handkerchiefs are always in order, so also are books, albums, pictures, diaries, stationery, pens, pencils, etc.

No doubt there are sordid selfish people living who never gave a present to anybody. To such I would say, begin now. Give something beautiful or useful or both, and when you get your heart open put in a wedge.

There are people old and young and middle aged who are really needy and would not feel offended at a Christmas gift, because even the rich receive them. Even a small gift shows that they are remembered.

The little tots must all have something suited to their wants and tastes. Let them enjoy life while they can, they will doubtless see grief enough in after life at best. Let me make it bright as long as possible. W. W. MAXIM.

FRYEBURG.

The Great-Great-Grandfather's Grave.

The death of Mrs. Mary Baker Glover Eddy, recalls the fact that her great-great-grandfather, Capt. John Lovewell of Dunstable, Mass., (that part of Dunstable, which is now included with it the limits of the city of Nashua, N. H.) met his death in this town and is buried here, though in an unknown grave.

Capt. Lovewell was a famous Indian fighter, and was killed in the desperate battle, since known as Lovewell's Fight which on Saturday, May 8, 1725, O. S. (May 18, N. S.) was fought on the shore of Lovewell's Pond, (which was so named in honor of Capt. Lovellwell), the scene of the batile being about a mile from Fryerburg village.

This sanguinary death-grapple in what was then a trackless wilderness began at about 10 o'clock a. m., and lasted till after sunset. Capt. Lovewell and eight of his men lost their lives in early part of the battle, and soon there after the whites, to guard against being surrounded by the Indians, by whom they were vastly outnumbered, retired to the edge of the pond, where, with the pond in their rear, the mouth of an unfordable brook on their right, a rocky point on their left, and a ridge in their front, and also having the shelter ot some large pine trees, they succeeded in holding the savages at bay and in finely forcing them to doggedly retire discomfited from the field and forego their wellnigh successful efforts to capture or to completely annihilate their white antagonists.

At about the hour of midnight those of the surviving members of Capt. Lovewell's valiant company who were able to travel commenced a retreat towards the white settlements, but, of three mortally wound comrades, two were unable to travel, and these together with the bodies of 10 of their slain companions, they were obliged to abandon and leave behind on the ensanguined field of carnage, one of the 10 dead bodies thus abandoned and left behind being that of Mrs. Eddy's great-great-grandfather, Capt. Lovewell.

As soon as intelligence of the battle reached the white settlements, Col. Eleazer Tyng with a company of soldiers was sent to the scene of the battle, and the bodies of Capt. Lovewell and his fellow-companions in death were found and buried on the field by Col. Tyng and his company. The bodies had not been scalped by the Indians, the failure of the Indians to do this being explainable, apparently, on no other ground than that of their own great losses and ultimate defeat in the battle. At just what spot on the battlefield Col. Tyng and his company buried the bodies is not known.

Though, as just stated, the bodies had not been scalped by the Indins, yet, if the Indians, when they afterwards visited the battlefield, could have discovered where the bodies were buied, it is probale that they would have exhumed and scalped them and perhaps have subjected them to other savage indignities, so Col. Tyng and his company in buring the bodies, undoubtedly took care that as little trace as possible was left as to the place of their sepulture.

The genealogical line from Mrs. Eddy to Capt. Lovewell is as follows:- Mrs. Eddy's father was Mark Baker, Mark Baker's father was Joseph Baker, Joseph Baker's mother was Mrs. Hannah Baker, wife of Joseph Baker, Mrs. Hannah Baker was the daughter of Capt. Lovewell. Mrs. Eddy's uncle John Baker, a brother to the above-mentioned Mark Baker, was a resident of the adjoining town of Conway, N. H., and died there Dec. 29, 1832.

Dean Abbott, the oldest man in town, was buried Dec 1. He had made his home with his son, E. D. Abbott for several years.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Atherton.

Died in Waterford, Maine, October 25, 1910, Mrs. Elizabeth H. Atherton in the 66th year of her age.

Mrs. Atherton was of old Waterford stock. Her father, John Wilkins, was the oldest son of John Wilkins, who came from Massachusetts and settled on Temple Hill. John Wilkins, jr., was a quiet, dignified man greatly respected for his high character. Mrs. Wilkins was the daughter of Africa Hamlin, who settled with his brothers, Hannibal, Eleazer and America, on the north side of the beautiful hills south of Tom Pond. The Hamlins came from Harvard, Mass., where much of the plantation of Waterford was owned. Africa Hamlin was clerk for the proprietors. From these four Hamlins and a brother, Dr. Cyrus Hamlin of Paris Hill, have sprung the Maine Hamlins, men and women who have so honored the State.

Mrs. Wilkins was a noble woman, devoted to the church and society. She kept open house in her pleasant home at Waterford Flat. As a friend said, "Mrs. Wilkins always gave her guests a welcome most hearty and sincere; other matters were secondary." I need not say that house has continued to be a home of gracious hospitality in the care of Mrs. Atherson and Miss Wilkins during the long years since their mother's death in 1880. Hundreds who have shared the wholesome life of these sisters can testify to the truth of this.

The fifteen years prior to the Civil War marked high tide in the religious life of Waterford. The churches were well filled and faithful, strong men ministered to the people. Few families failed to maintain some sort of church relationship and most gave regular and hearty support to the church of their choice. The old church at "The Flat" under Father Douglass of honored memory and for fifty-seven years its pastor, was a tremendous religious and social power. I can see in the Wilkins pew, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins and Aunt Nabby Hamlin. Mrs. Wilkins' earnest face must have been an inspiration to the preacher.

The influence of this church broadened and sweetened the home life of the Wilkins family and this in turn acted upon the church, so Mrs. Atherton was singularly fortunate in her early training. Throughout her life she loved the church and for fifty years she sang in its choir and she compelled the duties of her household to make way that she might be in her place on Sunday.

Mrs. Atherton was an intensely active woman. She loved to accomplish things. Her household, the church, her social duties in the beautiful village of Waterford and in the larger community whose summer life centered there, found in her an inspiring personality.

She was inventive, persistent, kindly and generous of money and time. She loved books and she knew the Bible as the fathers and mothers knew it, being able to repeat large portions of it not because she ever set herself to learn it but because its truth and beauty appealed to her and she could not forget it.

In her home were many books but she was never bookish for she assimilated what she read. She was a woman of large sympathies which she cultivated by much reading, keeping in touch with what was being said and done in the world.

Her sister, whose more active term of service was spent in the schools of Brooklyn, New York, but whose delight it always was to be in the dear home at Waterford when possible, has the sympathy of all her friends.

ENDS WINTER'S TROUBLES.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

Mrs. Flint was the widow of Amos Flint who settled on a farm about one mile easterly from Waterford Flat, and died there March 20, 1883. During late years she has been confined to the house, and to the conveniences afforded by a wheel-chair. She retained her faculties of mind to a great degree, and was confined to her bed by her last illness only about three weeks.

She is survived by one son, Loton W. Flint and Mrs. Lizzie Pike, an adopted daughter, wife of Elbridge Pike.

PARIS.

Lewis M. Brown.

News was received here of the death in Trinidad, W. I., of Lewis M. Brown, one of the best known of the summer residents at Paris, where he and his family have passed the summer for a number of years.

Mr. Brown was an active, public spirited citizen and one who will be much missed in the place not only for the many enterprises in which his money and influence have always been so freely given but in many quiet acts of kindness to those needing his help. Though he had been in poor health for many years he was not a man to give up his work and during the last summer he seemed better than for a long time.

He leaves a widow, one son, Lewis B. Brown of New York, and two daughters, Mrs. Lydia Brown Jacob, wife of Bert Jacob of Stamford, Ct., and Gertrude M. Brown, who was to have joined Mr. and Mrs. Brown last week.

Mrs. Lena S. Herrick who has been teaching in the Whittemore district, was the week-end guest of her former school mate, Mrs. F. B. Hammond. Mrs. Herrick reports an attendance of 13; average 10, which considering the fact that two of the children were very young, was an extra good record.

The remains of George H. Cummings of Mechanic Falls were brought to Paris last week for interment in the family lot in Hilltop cemetery. Mr. Cummings was the son of Jonathan and Huldah (Chesley) Cummings and the last of a number of children. Much of his life was spent at Paris, where he had many friends. He was twice married. His first wife was Caroline Albee, who died in 1880. They had two children who died in childhood. His second wife was Nellie C. Greene of Waterford, who survives him.
